"Be Watchful and Pray - over God's creation"

"The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it." Genesis 2:15

When God created the universe and everything in it, he carefully planned that his beautiful creation would support and sustain all that he had created. God needed someone to care for it, to manage it, to oversee and protect it. Generation after generation, all humanity has had the honor and privilege to act as stewards of God's earth. For God's creation to continue fulfilling its purpose of providing for humanity now and in the future, then we are the chosen ones who have been granted the responsibility to care for and not abuse what God created.

Maybe we should ask ourselves, how well are we doing? All around us, we observe changes to the weather patterns. Across the world, people are dealing with unbearable heat and cold as well as destructive forest fires, major flooding and extreme drought. Disasters from storms, hurricanes, tornados, earthquakes have caused loss of property, lives and livelihood. And we wonder what has happened to our various food sources, our water and other natural resources. Could it be that we have not been good stewards in caring for the world God left in our hands?

This month, we celebrate Easter, our relationship with God, and our commitment to love, trust and give of our lives to serving others as Christ demonstrated for us. This month, we will also be celebrating Earth Day. Maybe, we should be asking ourselves, how well are we demonstrating God's love, respect and care for all of his creation.

Every day, we need to be watchful of our actions and the impact they will have on all that God has entrusted to our care. Our prayers should be on seeking guidance and wisdom to make the right choices in our lives that will protect and preserve all that God has created. May our eyes be opened to see this world, not as a resource that we dominate and exploit, but as a gift to be cherished by all generations.

The world around us is a gift from God — let us take care of that gift!

Children's Prayer Time

Dear Jesus, thank you for this beautiful planet we live on. Help me to care for all you have made and help me to love this world as much as you do. Amen.

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of Jesus, his resurrection and for the forgiveness of our sins. We thank you for healing the brokenness in our lives and for restoring our relationships with one another. Today, more than ever, we need your continued presence in our lives, and we look for your help and guidance as we face the needs in this world.

- We are going through a time where financial support is diminishing for organizations and programs that have helped the poor, the elderly, disabled and homeless with food, clothing and shelter. Guide us in doing what we can, especially through supporting the local thrift store, by contributing to the food shelf and packaging food at the Feed My Starving Children on April 26.
- Bring healing and comfort to all who are hurting. We lift up all who are on our prayer network and those in our personal prayers. Ease their pain, restore their health, and grant them strength and peace during this difficult time. May they know that you are always with them.
- Continue to work in the lives of our young people. Give them the courage to face the challenges of today, and the ability to discern truth from falsehood. Guide their steps and show them your ways in serving others.
- We thank you for the gift of spring sports, the competition and the excitement. Help athletes respect their opponents, appreciate their teammates, and play each game with integrity. Bring safety to the playing field.
- We thank you for our Inspirational Wednesday Lenten meals with Jesus, for our worship time together, and for the Lenten daily devotional study. May we continue to use this time and these resources to draw closer to you through our prayers, reading and meditation.
- Help us continue to support the fund raising efforts for the ministry and mission work of our youth and their advisors.
- As we are each called to serve you in various ways, be with those who may be discerning a call into ministry. Guide and direct them as you have gifted them.
- Blessings on Karlie and Eleanor on their baptism and new life in Christ. May their faith be nurtured by their parents, sponsors, and their church family.

- We lift up the churches within our community. Continue to bless their work and guide them in spreading your word to those who reside in and visit our communities.
- May the work of this congregation continue to grow in ways that reach out to people of all generations. We lift all our members, friends and guests in prayer. In April we will be praying for the following:
 - Blake, Whitney, Kloe, Kobe, Karsen, Kora, Kenadie, and Karlie Phipps, Les and Donna Pinz, Kallan Pojanowski, Amy Proffitt, Klaus and Priscilla Rapp, Katie and Livia Raverty, James, Maggie, Scarlett, and Sage Rens, Jean Retka, Bruce and Laurie Richards, Nancy Rizer-Schmidt, Isaac, Amber, Rita, Maya, and Charles Robertson
- Continue to guide the planning for the ELCA church wide assembly this summer in Arizona. May their plans align with your plans for the church as we look towards the future.
- As the spring weather arrives, grant favorable planting conditions for our farmers, and nice weather for the resorts and businesses that depend on tourism to support our economy.
- Be with all who plan to travel over Easter. May we show hospitality by welcoming into our homes, those who have no family or place to go.
- As the snowbirds return, grant them wisdom and safety as they navigate their way back to us.

We are thankful for all you provide for us each day. We enjoy all of what you have provided for us through your creation. Help us to continue to treat and respect all of your creation with care and love. AMEN

Blessing: Ellory Christianson, Diane Gibas, Nancy Hendry, Dave Morneau, Doc Moss, Sandy Nies, Carolyn Nutt, Pam Peterson, Mary Sears, Cheryl Ten Bruin.

Note: Prayer shawls are available in the Chapel

Reconciling in Christ (RIC)

Our Northeastern Minnesota Synod has been working through the process toward becoming a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) Synod. Delegates, Doug Halvorson and Karen Gabriel, will be voting on the following resolution at the up-coming Synod Assembly on May 3 and 4.

The resolution states:

The Northeastern Minnesota Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is committed to the inclusive hospitality of God which welcomes all people into the work of the church to proclaim Christ, serve the neighbor, and strive for justice and peace in the world. We embody this hospitality in our life together as synod through unapologetic welcome and affirmation of people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and expressions, races and ethnicities, ages and abilities, and social-economic or citizenship statuses. We embrace the calling to work for welcome and reconciliation through our commitment to anti-racism and inclusion.

So what does it mean if the Northeastern Minnesota Synod becomes a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) synod?

In short: nothing changes for Faith Lutheran. The synod's decision to adopt a Welcome Statement and pursue RIC status reflects a public commitment made at the synod level—it is not binding on individual congregations. We are not automatically enrolled in the RIC program, nor are we required to adopt any specific statement or practice.

If Faith Lutheran were ever to consider becoming RIC, it would be a separate, congregational process that would begin with deep listening, learning, and dialogue. It would involve opportunities for education, discussion, and discernment—and ultimately, it would require a vote by the congregation.

We recognize that people in our congregation hold a variety of views on this topic. That diversity of thought is part of what makes our faith community strong. Our commitment is to continue walking together in love and respect, trusting that the Holy Spirit meets us in our questions, our conversations, and our care for one another.

What is RIC?

RIC stands for Reconciling in Christ, a designation offered by ReconcilingWorks, a Lutheran organization that works to promote the full inclusion of LGBTQIA+ people in the life of the church.

Congregations, ministries, and synods that become RIC commit to publicly and intentionally welcoming people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions. But the welcome doesn't stop there—RIC also includes a commitment to racial equity, accessibility for people of all abilities, and a broader vision of justice and inclusion in the life of the church.

Becoming RIC is not a one-size-fits-all process. It involves deep listening, education, relationship-building, and reflection on how our words and actions reflect the Gospel. For many churches and synods, the journey begins with crafting a Welcome Statement that explicitly names who is welcome—and why.

At its heart, RIC is about creating church communities where everyone—especially those who have historically felt excluded—can trust that they belong, are seen, and are loved as they are.

What does this resolution mean for the Northeastern Minnesota Synod?

Adopting a Welcome Statement and pursuing a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) designation is not just about adding a label—it's about deepening our identity as the Body of Christ in Northeastern Minnesota.

For our synod, this means making a clear, public commitment to welcome and affirm all people, especially those who have often felt unwelcome or unseen in church spaces—particularly our LGBTQIA+ siblings, people of color, individuals with disabilities, and others who have experienced exclusion. It's about living into the Gospel call to love boldly, to listen deeply, and to stand with those on the margins.

If the resolution passes, the synod will continue walking a path of education, relationship-building, and spiritual growth. This includes engaging congregations in conversation, offering resources for learning, and cultivating a culture where every person can trust that they belong and are beloved.

This does not mean every congregation is required to become RIC. Each community continues to discern its own journey. But as a synod, we are saying clearly: everyone is created in God's image, and everyone deserves to hear the good news of Jesus' love in a place where they are fully welcomed and affirmed.

What does this mean for Faith Lutheran Church?

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) is often described as a “big tent” church—a community where people with a wide variety of theological, political, and cultural perspectives are welcomed and held together by God’s grace. We take seriously the image from 1 Corinthians 12 that we are one body with many parts: diverse, yet united in Christ.

The ELCA is made up of three expressions—congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—each with its own responsibilities and authority, yet all working interdependently to support the mission of the church. While we collaborate across these expressions, congregations like Faith Lutheran remain self-governing. We call our own pastors, elect our own councils, manage our own ministry, and discern our own direction.

That said, all ELCA congregations do agree to some core principles of structure and governance that help us walk together as a church. For example, every congregation follows a shared process for calling or ending the call of a pastor, in coordination with the synod. Congregations are expected to have a church council, including an executive committee, to oversee governance and ministry leadership. Membership is handled in similar ways across the ELCA, with common practices around baptism, confirmation, transfer, and active participation. In addition, congregations follow consistent approaches to financial reporting, constitutional guidelines, and maintaining a relationship with the wider church. These shared structures create stability, accountability, and a sense of belonging to something larger than ourselves, while still allowing each congregation to reflect its own unique context and culture.

You might be wondering, If nothing is changing at Faith, why are we talking about this at all?

That’s a fair question—and an important one.

Our congregational leadership believes that transparency, communication, and participation matter. As members of the Northeastern Minnesota Synod, we have the opportunity to be part of important conversations happening in the wider church. This includes hearing what is being proposed at the synod level, offering feedback from our own local context, and making sure our voices are part of the discernment process.

We didn’t want this resolution to be something that’s voted on “out there” without you knowing it’s happening. We don’t want decisions made in isolation—or surprises down the road. Instead, we believe in being open and honest about the work our synod is engaging in, even when that work doesn't directly change our life together here at Faith.

There is one more opportunity for anyone who wants to hear more, learn more, and offer feedback, to attend an RIC workshop at Synod Assembly on Saturday, May 3rd at Breezy Point Resort. These workshops are open to all—not just voting members—and are designed to create space for honest conversation and shared understanding. A specific time for the workshop has not yet been announced, but we will share that information as soon as it becomes available.

If you have thoughts, questions, or feedback, we encourage you to reach out to our synod assembly voting members, Karen Gabriel and Doug Halvorson. They will be representing Faith at the assembly and would be glad to hear your perspective as they prepare for those conversations.

- Devotions - Karen
- Guest Comments - Dorothy Haggberg joined us to share her concerns and show her support.
- Agenda – Modifications and Approval
 - Diane makes a motion to accept the agenda with the addition of a closed meeting regarding personnel under new business, Second - Aliesha, motion carried.
- Approval of Minutes from Council Meeting on February 18, 2025
 - Motion to approve - Diane, Second - Kortney, motion carried.
- Receive Treasurer's Report – February 2025
 - Our property insurance was paid this month at $4352. Pastor Josh spoke with Dale and Diana after concerns were expressed last month about offerings being low. They both said this is typical this time of the year and that it picks back up after Easter.
 - Treasurer was not present so there is nothing to accept.
- Pastor's Report
 - Pastor Josh has been working hard on the devotional book for Lent. It has been a lot of work, but we have had great feedback from it. Pizza with pastors continues to work well and have a great outcome. In June there is a young adult leaders conference. The ELCA will be paying for one leader to go from each young adult Gather group. This is all paid for by the ELCA and Colby Hubbel will go as our leader from Gather Mille Lacs. Lots of planning is happening for Easter coming up, as well as graduation. We will recognize our seniors on May 18th during service. Baccalaureate is on May 24th.

➤ Old Business

1. Personnel Policy, Employees (March 30th)
 - Pastor Rollie will be here on Sunday March 30th after worship. This will be an information session where he will discuss the Synod's reasons for employees not serving on council or the call committee. After Pastor Rollie talks about these reasons, it will be opened up to the congregation to ask questions.
2. RIC
 - We have received the resolution from the Synod regarding RIC (Reconciling in Christ). We now need the congregation to reach out to our Delegates from Faith, Doug Halvorson and Karen Gabriel, with feedback on this subject. Karen and Doug will use feedback from our congregation and vote on the resolution at Synod Assembly. We strongly encourage everyone to reach out to either Doug or Karen with your thoughts and concerns. The council will continue working on getting information out there for all of the congregation regarding this topic. Lastly, IF the Synod becomes RIC, this DOES NOT mean we at Faith will also become RIC.
3. Discussion on Council Vacancy
 - We still have one vacant council position following the resignation of Tim McArdle. Kallan Pojanowski has said he is interested in joining council.

- Kortney makes a motion to fill our vacant council seat with Kallan Pojanowski. Diane - Second, motion carried.

➤ New Business

4. Council April Meeting Date
 - April 15, 2025
5. Post Prom Donation Request
 - Isle High School's post prom committee is asking for a donation. We do not have a budget set aside for community donations, so instead we will ask the congregation for a special offering the next 2 Sundays to help with this.
6. Revisioning
 - It might be time to think about a revisioning within our church. Rethinking what our vision is now compared to what it has been in the past. Strategic planning for revisioning. More to come with this.
7. Personnel
 - Motion to close the meeting at 7:04 p.m. by Karen, Second - Diane, motion carried.
 - Motion to open the meeting at 8:02 p.m. by Diane, Second - Elaine, motion carried.
